

April 27, 2017. Alecu Russo Balti State University helded the International Scientific - Practical Conference „Educational Management”.

On April the 27th, within the Library National Awareness Day, Elena Harconita, Director of the USARB Scientific Library participated in the International Scientific - Practical Conference „Educational Management: Achievements and Development Perspectives”. The event was organized by the Faculty of Educational Sciences, Psychology and Arts. The papers within the eight sections of the international scientific-practical conference focused on various themes.

Angela Hăbășescu, senior librarian of the Scientific Library participated with a paper: Innovative Management - Challenge for Education Sciences.

A Flashmob with student participation occurred all over the academic campus during the conference.